

What are Jessamine County Medical Reserve Corps?

- The Jessamine County MRC is a partnership with the Kentucky Health Emergency Listing of Professionals for Surge (KHELPS) system
- Jessamine County MRC recruits health professionals and non-medical people into volunteer service
- Jessamine County MRC will be used to supplement existing emergency services during a disaster

To join the Jessamine County MRC, you must:

- Fill out an application on the KHELPS website <https://khelps.chfs.ky.gov>

As a volunteer, you will gain personal satisfaction in making a difference in your community and knowledge that you are part of a community-wide emergency response effort.

If you have questions, you can contact the Jessamine County MRC Coordinator:
